

TWO SESSIONS OF LEGISLATURE

Opposition Criticism of Government Riddled by Messrs. Rutherford, Cushing and Others.

The legislature held two important sessions yesterday, the debate upon the speech from the throne being carried through both with some excitement. When the House adjourned shortly after ten o'clock the members generally were in disposition for a brisk debate, and during the lateness of the hour the debate upon the motion of R. T. Telford, member for Leduc, was adjourned. The premier moved that the adjournment be until three o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The close of the afternoon session left the leader of the opposition quite discomfited by the criticism of his reply had had upon his carefully prepared and well delivered speech, while by ten o'clock the criticism of his speech was being made by Mr. Rutherford, who was feeling quite uncomfortable at the manner in which a portion of the public were in a few minutes of cold, balanced speaking and logical reasoning, and the opposition was feeling the superiority of his mental gymnastics.

The facts of Mr. Cushing's argument as to Alberta's resources, and the way in which these are handled were unimpeachable. By this time John T. Meacham, member for the riding of St. Albert, was in the chair, and his speech was complete. The speaker took the chair for the afternoon session, and after a few minutes of his speech, he was interrupted by Mr. Cushing, who was in the chair, and his speech was complete.

On the order of the day being called W. C. Simpson presented a resolution from the city of Calgary, asking for the construction of a new bridge over the Bow River, and the speaker took the chair for the afternoon session, and after a few minutes of his speech, he was interrupted by Mr. Cushing, who was in the chair, and his speech was complete.

A SECOND QUEBEC CITY, RESULT OF HIS MISSION TO JAPAN

Hon. Mr. Lemieux Explains Negotiations in Reference to Japanese Immigration Question.

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—Hon. Mr. Lemieux made a three-hour explanation of his mission to Tokyo today. The feature of his speech was the production of a letter written by Baron Hayashi, Japanese minister, promising to restrict immigration to Japan. Mr. Lemieux was received with great applause. At the end he declared that none of the press reports concerning the negotiations were accurate and he was inclined to believe the onslaught of the Associated Press was because he had permitted a survey.

I have no authority to offer nor I claim credit for the silence kept; I simply did my duty," he declared.

He explained that the Japanese government had been very anxious to secure the settlement in British Columbia, and that he had been very anxious to secure the settlement in British Columbia, and that he had been very anxious to secure the settlement in British Columbia.

NO FORECLOSURES OF MORTGAGES HERE

Damaging Report Widely Published in Eastern Canada in Connection with the Mortgage Business Absolutely Without Foundation.

A most damaging and erroneous impression has been abroad regarding the mortgage business in Edmonton and this portion of Alberta, as a result of a dispatch from Wall Street, New York, regarding the death of W. CUTTING OUT THE SPECULATOR.

To the public the most interesting sections of the new Insurance Bill are those limiting the field for the investment of insurance funds. To the wide latitude allowed such investments heretofore may be traced a very large proportion of the grievances which the insuring public have asserted at the hands of the Insurance Companies. The new bill, by limiting the Insurance Act some years ago practically opened the door for wholesale speculation with such funds, and serious competition long since developed in urging the insurance managers to seize the opportunity thus offered them. The money of policyholders, however, was not to be so easily parted. The money of policyholders of all kinds, domestic and foreign, regardless of whether or not they had previously been dividend-paying concerns, so long as they were a part of the stock market. This was only the beginning of things, and the managers of insurance companies, long since found in speculation on the stock market. The new act puts a stop to this kind of thing by limiting the classes of investment open to insurance money to those which promise a maximum of security and involve a minimum of risk. The speculative change is thus eliminated, and with it should go the evils it produced, or by which it was accompanied. The Act repeats any powers for wider investment conferred by any special Act or elsewhere, and gives the companies holding securities not conformable to the new regulations five years in which to dispose of them.

The investments permitted by the new Act are specified as follows:

- (a) The debentures, bonds, stocks or other securities, or of guaranteed by the government of the Dominion of Canada; or of guaranteed by the government or any province of Canada; or of guaranteed by the government of the United States; or of any colony or dependency thereof; or of guaranteed by the government of any foreign country, or state forming a portion of a foreign country, wherein the company carries on or is about to carry on business, provided the Treasury Board has signified its approval of such securities; or of any municipal or school corporation in Canada, or elsewhere where the company is carrying on business.

- (b) The bonds of any company incorporated in Canada or elsewhere where the company is carrying on business, which bonds have been issued and outstanding for a period of at least five years prior to the time of purchase and which are secured by a mortgage to trustees or otherwise upon the real estate or other assets, are of a market value of at least twenty-five per cent. in excess of the amount of the bonds to be secured thereby, provided default shall not have been made in any regular interest payment upon such bonds within said period of five years; or

- (c) The debentures or other evidences of indebtedness, not secured by mortgage, of any such company, which debentures or other evidences of indebtedness have been issued and outstanding for a period of at least seven years prior to the time of purchase; or

- (d) The preferred stocks of any such company upon which regular dividends of at least four per cent. have been paid for the seven years next preceding the purchase of such stocks; or

- (e) The common stocks of any such company upon which regular dividends of at least five per cent. have been paid for the ten years next preceding the purchase of such stocks.

Provided that not more than twenty per cent. of the total issue of such bonds, debentures, or stocks respectively, of any such company shall be purchased by any such life insurance company; or

- (f) Ground rents or mortgages on real estate in Canada, or elsewhere where the company is carrying on business, provided that the amount paid for any such mortgage shall be not more than sixty per cent. of the value of the real estate covered by such mortgage; or

- (g) Life or endowment policies or contracts issued by the company or by any other life insurance company licensed to transact business in Canada.

As such life insurance company may lend its funds or any portion thereof on the security of:

- (a) Any of the bonds, debentures, stocks or other securities mentioned in the preceding subsection; or
- (b) Real estate or leasehold for a term or terms of years or other estate or interest therein in Canada or elsewhere where the company is carrying on business; Provided, however, that no such loan shall exceed sixty per cent. of the value of the real estate or interest therein which forms the security for such loan.

The foreign investments of Canadian companies are also limited. The total amount invested in or loaned upon securities other than Canadian securities by any such company shall not exceed more than twenty per cent. the reserve or reinsurance value of its policies other than Canadian policies, calculated upon the basis of the situation adopted by such company.

The following stipulations are quite so significant, as history has shown them to be needed.

22. No such life insurance company shall, nor shall its directors or officers or any of them under colour of an investment of the money of the company, in bonds, debentures or other securities, directly or indirectly be employed, concerned or interested in the promotion of any other company in the construction or operation of its works.
23. No such life insurance company shall subscribe to or participate in or employ the funds of the company in any undertaking of the purchase or sale of securities or property of any kind, nor shall any transaction for such purchase or sale on account of said corporation, jointly with any other person, firm or corporation.

Plainly interpreted, the Act seems to mean that insurance funds are heretofore to be handled as trust funds.

CANADA'S EMBLEM.

It is proposed to render the historic Plains of Abraham with a statue of the angel of peace. The proposal is as worthy of Canada as the site is fitting for the statue. No country on earth has better right to erect such a statue and on no spot of Canadian soil would it have such significance as on the precipice that looks down upon the St. Lawrence. One hundred and fifty years ago two armies of brave men met in sanguinary conflict there; and the victors, for a century and a half the descendants of the two races have stood ready to defend the heights against all comers. It is fitting that the emblem of peace should be displayed in the forsaken haunts of war it is early people appreciate that the statutory representation of peace should occupy a spot rich in glorious traditions.

Two confident people whose animosity has been effaced by friendship and common citizenship. The Plains of Abraham awaken no unpleasant associations today in the minds of Canadians of either French or British descent. What once fighting that the children of peace be reared where it shall also exemplify the supercession of racial hostility by racial union and co-operation.

Aside from this, no more appropriate emblem could be displayed at our eastern gateway to the travellers from the older world. Canada is essentially a nation of peace. Our history has been marked by fewer wars than that of any people on the globe occupying a country rich enough to excite cupidities. For this we are in no small degree indebted to our isolated situation, and to the fact that our only neighbor is a nation speaking our language and recognizing the principles of international justice. The same cause should guarantee us peace in future. The ease that guard us also restrain our military ambitions. No country is more favorably situated to cultivate the spirit of peace. More, our national power must reach its zenith in an era when right-thinking men hope that we shall have become a horror of the past, more fitting than to announce to the world that the giant of the north is to be a civilized nation and not a barbaric one? The statue of the goddess of liberty guards the eastern gateway of the Republic to the world; she could receive no happier parallel than to

CORRESPONDENCE

THE BRITISH NAVY LEAGUE.

Editor Bulletin.

Sir—Much is heard concerning the British Navy League, but I have been struck by how little is known in Western Canada concerning that powerful organization, the British Navy League, leaves my reason for trespassing upon your space. Previous to settling in this country, I devoted much time to the work of the Navy League being held, secretary to a large branch, and up to the two-pence standard, the secretary of the Navy League, I would endeavor to continue my work in this country. Two good branches already exist in the country: at Ottawa and Toronto, and there is no reason why others should not be carried in the western provinces.

The Navy League is a strictly non-political organization, formed for the following objects: First, to impress and instill that wherever government shall be in power, the royal navy shall be kept at a high state of efficiency; secondly, to maintain such a navy as the highway to the world's peace and free from molestation; thirdly, to educate the public of Great Britain and her colonies, by means of lectures and excursions, and any attempt to cut down the navy estimates would meet with such opposition that nothing would think twice before carrying out such a project.

In connection let me briefly point out how a branch can be formed in this country. Eight ladies or gentlemen must at a preliminary meeting pass a resolution that an Edmonton branch be formed. These eight must be the founders, and would undertake to pay an annual subscription of five dollars each. A requisition would be sent to the Navy League in London, asking the committee to grant a charter to the city. This being done, the annual of the district after a general meeting would be called, members and associates would be elected, a president, chairman, committee and hon. treasurer and hon. secretary, and the members and associates receiving the monthly journal, an up-to-date literature concerning the Navy League, a special Union Jack flag with the Navy League motto on it could be displayed upon suitable occasions. Should citizens wish to help in forming an Edmonton branch I shall be pleased to answer any questions, and would willingly place my services at their disposal. Yours truly,

W. J. RYMER.

TO BUY OUT BELL.

Lethbridge Board of Trade Wants the Government to Do This. Lethbridge, Alta. Jan. 21.—The Lethbridge board of trade are in favor of the Alberta government entering into negotiations with the Bell Telephone company for the purchase of that company's line. This idea is embodied in the following resolution, which was passed recently by the board: "Whereas, the government of the province of Alberta, in its contracted certain telephone lines throughout the province of Alberta and whereas the Bell Telephone company is also operating certain exchanges and long distance lines in parts of the province.

"And, whereas, further development and settlement of the country within time to time render necessary the construction of more telephone lines with the result that the two systems must inevitably clash and conflict with one another at various points.

"Therefore be it resolved, that this convention whilst contemplating the government of Alberta on its thoughts and enterprise in establishing a provincial telephone system, would respectfully suggest that in order to insure the fullest benefit to the people of Alberta, the government should at an early date endeavor by negotiations with the Bell Telephone company to secure the lines now owned by it so that all telephone lines in the province may be the property of the government."

HARVARD WILL PLAY CARLISLE.

Boston, Jan. 21.—Glen Warner, coach of the Carlisle Indian football team and the director of athletics at the Harvard University, has been invited to Boston today to ascertain what Harvard's attitude is toward playing the Indians next fall. He has heard that considering a game with the Indians, the Harvard authorities are thought of substituting this game for the one which has usually been played with the Indians so many years ago. Warner and Captain Hall of the Harvard team spent the afternoon together, and the result of their talk was not given out. Captain Burr, however, says that there is no chance of Harvard playing Princeton, at least this coming fall, and that the crimson will meet the Indians as usual. Just what date will be given Carlisle, however, will not be settled at once.

POOR PROSPECTS FOR CREW.

New York, Jan. 21.—Haste is being made in getting together an American crew for the Olympic regatta in London this year. There are great difficulties which President Pihlstrom and his committee find it hard to overcome. One is the question of money; it will cost not less than $20,000 to send a crew and a boat, and it is no betrayal of confidence to say that the money is not yet in sight. Another difficulty is in the selection of a homogeneous crew strong enough to stand a chance of winning.

It seems now that the best chance to get a crew will be by selection from the college crews after the summer regattas. As these crews have each a different style and are trained to different methods it will be a hard matter to get them rowing well enough together to win races against the world's best between the time of selection and the time of the London regatta.

TOM SHARKEY BROKE.

New York, Jan. 21.—Tom Sharkey, a longtime prize fighter, swears he is without any money. So he said at the tax department office. He was assessed at $10,000, so he went down to the tax department to tell them he was broke, so far as ready cash and personal property was concerned. He announced that he wanted to sweat off owning property, and he was asked the usual questions. "I don't own any personal property," said Sharkey. "I used to have some." The City of New York loses about $100 by Sharkey's financial embarrassment.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHALLENGE.

Joe Handley, of Newark, N. J., is in Montreal, and says he is ready to meet any man in Canada, or the United States in the lightweight class up to 135 pounds. He will also take on any man catch weight up to 140 pounds. Handley has been boxing throughout the United States, and is in good condition for a match with anyone who desires to meet him.

FROM COAST TO COAST.

New York, Jan. 21.—A former Montreal helper keeper at Montreal, in the Severeign Bank, R. A. Wilson, nineteen years old, will attempt without any training to walk from Atlantic to Pacific, 3,000 miles in ninety days, an average rate of more than 34 miles a day.

TORONTO BALL CLUB.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The Toronto Baseball Club at their annual meeting accepted the financial report of last season, which showed that $17,000 was taken in, and after the books had been closed, the balance of $12,000 was left. The following are the officers for the coming season: President, J. McFadden; vice-president, E. Burger; secretary-treasurer, L. Solman. That the exhibition tour of the Dominion air line on and after January 23, 1920, would be recognized by the union rate of wages as laid down by the arbitration board of Calgary, on their salaries, each week will be declared after to union labor in Calgary. The decision will also be binding on any contractor who may secure any part of the work to be done in connection therewith.

WANDERERS VS. LACOMBE.

The Wanderers will meet Lacombe in the first league game of the Senior H. A. in the Central rink, at McDougall avenue, at 8 o'clock to night, the Lacombe team has strenuously up since their last game and their reports received they are coming with no small degree of confidence in their ability to win it. Wanderers are between the lines up as follows: Allen; point, Russell Johnston; cover, Taylor; rover, Arnold Johnston; center, Clark; right, David, left, Mc Ginnis. A super will be tendered the visitors by the St. James hotel after the game.

RACETRACK TO-NIGHT.

A team practice is called for tonight, when the following teams will meet: Wilson, Banford, Crowley, Sibbald, Cradock, McKelvey, G. H. McLean, Holley, Miller, Whitford, Beaulieu, Boston, Miller. The practice will start at 7 o'clock sharp, all the men being requested to be at the rink at 6 o'clock in order that a full hour's practice may be held. Warren, who will probably make the first start in the practice, will not be out tonight, having had to leave the city for a day. In last night's practice Warren demonstrated his ability to send goal. The forward is perfecting his combination. Beaulieu is showing up well, his shooting being particularly effective. Crowley says he is the hardest man to check he has yet met, despite his diminutive size. Whitford, who is under the pretense that he was never skating faster than he ever did.

IN CHURCH LEAGUE.

The First Presbyterian church hockey team met and defeated the team from the Queen's Avenue Presbyterian Church by a score of 6 to 3 on Saturday last night. The game was very fast from start to finish and is the best game played in the church league this season. Pete Burley made a very capable referee and Dr. Patton a good judge of play. The lineups were as follows:

First Presbyterian.
R. Johnston.
Bill.
A. Johnston.
G. Deaton. G. McDermid.
L. Fife.
McGinnis.

GALGARY GONSPIEL.

Bulletin Special.
Calgary, January 21.—Better was provided for the hockey tonight, being much colder. The following competitions are now under way: Tucker, Vickers, and the draw has been made for the consolation. Some excellent games were played, today, many of them going thirteen and the rinks winning by one shot.

In the start of the Brewster, McCauley, Edmonton, defeated Drake, Red Deer, 14 to 8, but the former lost in the sixteen of the Grand Challenge to McLaughlin, Calgary, 10 to 1.

In the Victoria, McCauley lost to Trimble, Lacombe, 13 to 4. In the "Eight" of Grand Challenge, Calgary, in the first of these nights the following are in the "Eight": Grand Challenge, Calgary, Smith, Calgary, Wilson, Innisfail, Watters, Burt, Warren, Golden and McLaughlin, Calgary.

In the rights of the Tucker trophy, Fraser, McLaughlin, Smith, Fletcher, of Calgary, and Burt, of Banff, remain. In the rights in the Brewster, Pringle, Medicine Hat, and Fletcher, Tarrant, Cushing and Fraser, of Calgary, still survive.

Five handbuck men with moderate bank rolls were put out of business in Calgary on Saturday, because a pane of shivered fellows hired a telephone at a nearby drug store for the afternoon, by that means made known the names of the winners at New Orleans before the news reached the handbuck men by wire.

TRADES UNION WILL DEMAND THE SCALE

For Work on Dominion Fair Buildings in Calgary—Investigation Asked of Dismissal of Engineer and His Staff.

Union Special.
Calgary, January 22.—At a special meeting of the building trades union, the Trades & Labor Council held an night to discuss the cut in the firm rates of wages proposed by the Dominion Fair board, the following resolution was passed: "That it exhibition board of the Dominion fair do on and after January 23, 1920, refuse to recognize the union rate of wages as laid down by the arbitration board of Calgary, on their salaries, each week will be declared after to union labor in Calgary. The decision will also be binding on any contractor who may secure any part of the work to be done in connection therewith."

The position of the trades union is that the unions are bound by the agreement as fixed by the board of arbitration, but even then, the union's agreement, and do not wish to break it. If it is once broken, there will be constant trouble as it is the past prior to the agreement.

South entered an order passed in the city council that the city engineer and his staff be dismissed. This was the result of trouble between the engineer and a clique in the city council, which was the result of the work done by the city engineer and his staff.

Defunct Bank Officials Dismissed.
Toronto, Jan. 22.—None has been served by the Sovereign bank that the services of the staff will not be required. They get three months' notice. The staff comprises 21, of whom 4 are in Toronto, 9 in Montreal, 7 in Quebec, 1 in Ottawa, and 1 in London. The services of General Manager Jernett, will likely be required for two years in liquidation.

Railway Line to Be Extended.
Bellefleur, Mont., Jan. 22.—The presence in the city of a number of prominent officials of the Chicago and North Western railroads affords ample evidence of the extension of the line from Bellefleur, South Dakota, to this city. Mont., through the Pacific coast, being contemplated, according to the opinion in local railway circles.

Had Eyes Blown Out.
Toronto, January 21.—James Brown and both eyes blown out by an explosion of dynamite in the St. Lawrence street, near Windsor, N.S., today. He will live, but John McLeod was seriously fatally injured.

Ice Bridge Breaks Up.

TAKE MOTHER SEIGELS SYRUP

Small Will Go Free.
Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 21.—It seems likely that "Sherman Smith" will go free, the prosecution for attempted bribery of a juror pending at E. C. Browder's jury was dismissed today by Judge Morris, with the intimation that a similar course will be taken with Lyman Bachelder, another juror. The judge said that the surety had been paid, but there was no evidence to show they were intentionally or knowingly in contempt of court. Smith entered his affidavit leaving an attempt to bribe or in any way influence the jury in the case of the Wisconsin Grain Company. That the statute on the statute which was overruled by a recent senate operative, and which formed the basis of that charge, did not refer to the case on trial, but to a former jury.
